Benchmark - The benchmark is the S&P 500 Index, or the Standard & Poor's 500, which is a stock market index based on the market capitalizations of 500 leading companies publicly traded in the U.S. stock market, as determined by Standard & Poor's. Only companies with market capitalizations in excess of $4 billion are utilized in the index. The S&P 500 Index is calculated on a total return basis with dividends reinvested and is not assessed a management fee. Source: Bloomberg. The Morningstar US OE Large-Growth Category represents portfolios that invest primarily in big U.S. companies that are projected to grow faster than other large-cap stocks. Stocks in the top 70% of the capitalization of the U.S. equity market are defined as large cap. Growth is defined based on fast growth (high growth rates for earnings, sales, book value, and cash flow) and high valuations (high price ratios and low dividend yields). Most of these portfolios focus on companies in rapidly expanding industries.

Strategy Risks - Investing in any equity portfolio involves risk, including the potential loss of principal. The strategy invests in foreign securities which involves political, economic and currency risks, greater volatility and differences in accounting methods. The strategy may also invest in mid- cap companies, which tend to have limited liquidity and greater price volatility than large- capitalization companies. Performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's equity positions, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance of the strategy may be lower or higher than the performance quoted.

Performance Calculations - Valuations and returns are computed and stated in U.S. Dollars. Results reflect the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. Net-of-fees returns are calculated using actual annual client fees, pro-rated on a quarterly basis. The standard management fee for the Managed Equity strategy is 1.00% per annum. Additional information regarding Capital Advisor's fees is included in its Part 2 of Form ADV. Dispersion is calculated using the asset-weighted standard deviation of all accounts included in the composite for the entire year. Dispersion is not presented for periods less than one year or when there were five or fewer portfolios in the composite for the entire year. Policies for valuing portfolios, calculating performance and preparing a compliant presentation are available upon request. Portfolio yield represents the 12-month run rate of dividends from the strategy's representative account divided by the market value of the portfolio as of each quarter-end. This measure is calculated by a Morningstar.
